Project Details

“AN OFFLINE CHARACTER RECOGNITION TECHNIQUE FOR PRINTED DEVNAGARI SCRIPT “

- Duration : July, 2016 - May 2017
- Domain : Pattern Recognition

It is an OCR for printed Devnagari characters. An input image of devnagari script is given as an input and received output contains editable document of devnagari text which can be modify or save for further processing. It is applicable in area like check reading, postcard address reading as well as to convert hard copy of documents into soft, editable and hands-free format thus reduces floor space required for documents. It makes handling of document easier and reduces dependency of man-power to convert documents manually.
